

Education and Outreach: Reflecting on 2021

Presented at
Ghost Watershed Alliance Society
Annual General Meeting
November 27, 2021

Presented by
Sharlene Fritz

- Engaged over 1000 people of all ages
- Received help from 20+ volunteers
- Hosted 13 in-person events or tours
- Made 11 presentations
- Worked with 10+ partner organizations
- Awarded 3 grants to fund work
- Produced one film and one teacher resource

How many happy cups are there in this presentation?

Community Families Explore Aquatic Life
Ages 3+

Watershed Education Grade 8 Manachaban W.I.L.D. class

Photo credit: Marina Krainer

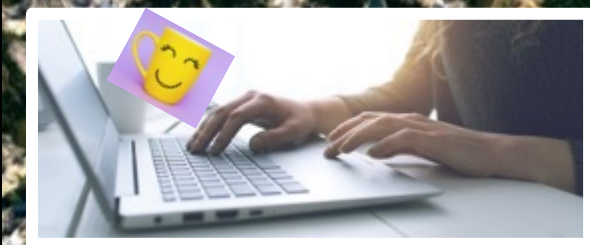

Where Land and Water Meet: A Systems Approach to Watershed Management

CCTCA 2021

Sharlene Fritz - Ghost Watershed Alliance Society
John Acheson, Kaitlin Chantler, Cody Field - The City of Calgary

CARING FOR OUR
WatershedsTM

For more information visit
CaringForOurWatersheds.com

This program is brought to you by:

Nutrien
Feeding the Future™

BATTLE RIVER
WATERSHED ALLIANCE

With support from community partners:

4-H Alberta
Alberta WaterPortal Society
Athabasca Watershed Council
Battle River School Division
Bow River Basin Council
City of Calgary
Ducks Unlimited Canada
Ghost Watershed Alliance Society
Inside Education

Lakeland Industry & Community Association
Lesser Slave Lake Watershed Council
Mighty Peace Watershed Alliance
Milk River Watershed Council
North Saskatchewan Watershed Alliance
Oldman Watershed Council
Red Deer River Watershed Alliance
Trout Unlimited Canada

www.CaringForOurWatersheds.com

Calgary

Mayor's Environment Expo 2021

Fire & Water: How Wildfire Affects Calgary's Source Watersheds and Beyond

Jennifer Makar – City of Calgary
Flora Giesbrecht - Elbow River Watershed Partnership
Sharlene Fritz - Ghost Watershed Alliance Society

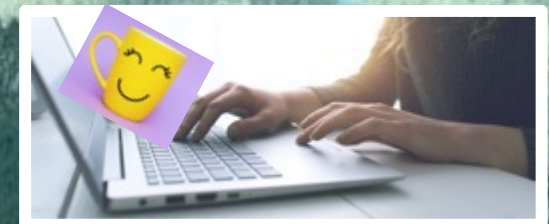

Photo credit: Alberta Agriculture and Forestry. Sept 2020

Against the Current:

the story of westslope cutthroat
trout in Alberta's headwater ecosystems

Mayor's Environment Expo

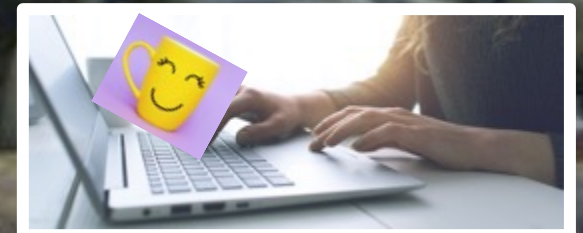

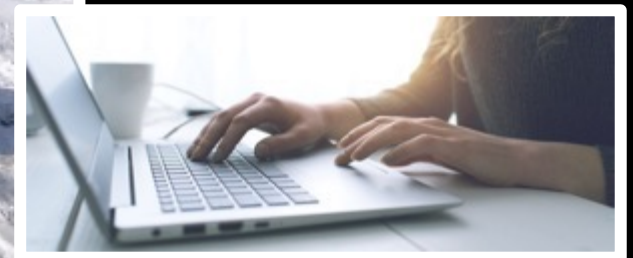

Photo source: Rocky Mountain Outlook. August 2011

Post-Secondary Projects St. Mary's University

Nocturnal Amphibian Survey
western (boreal) toad

The Ghost River Watershed

Human land use activities & watershed health

Presented to U of C ENSC 501

Presented by
Sharlene Fritz & Marina Krainer
Ghost Watershed Alliance Society

Presented on August 26, 2021

Photo credit

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY
FACULTY OF SCIENCE

Indulge your sense of adventure with a degree in environmental science at the University of Calgary, and start your path to unlimited discovery.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

"Take as many opportunities as you can.
Meet people and do things."

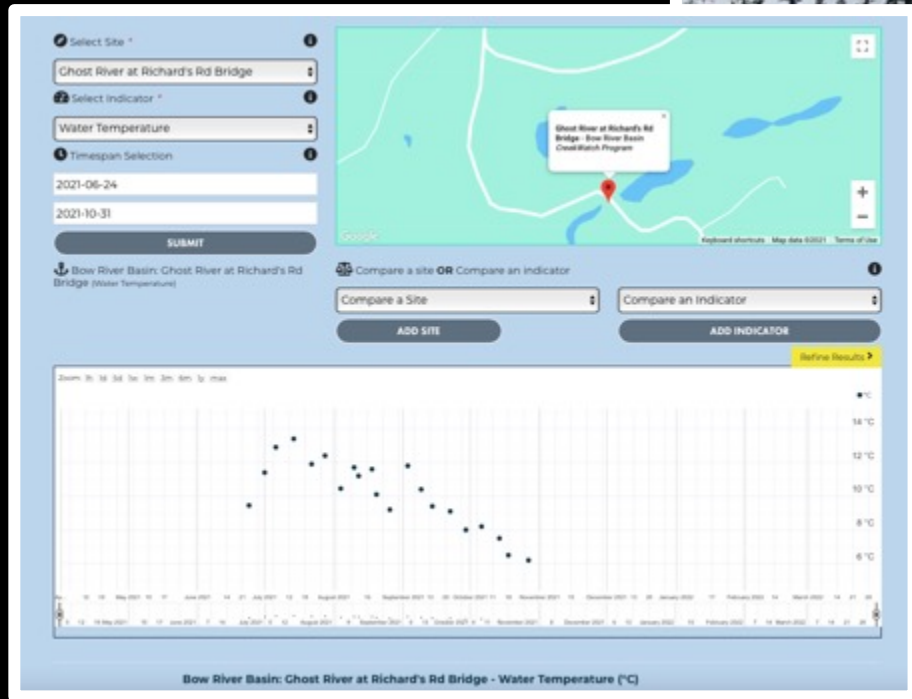

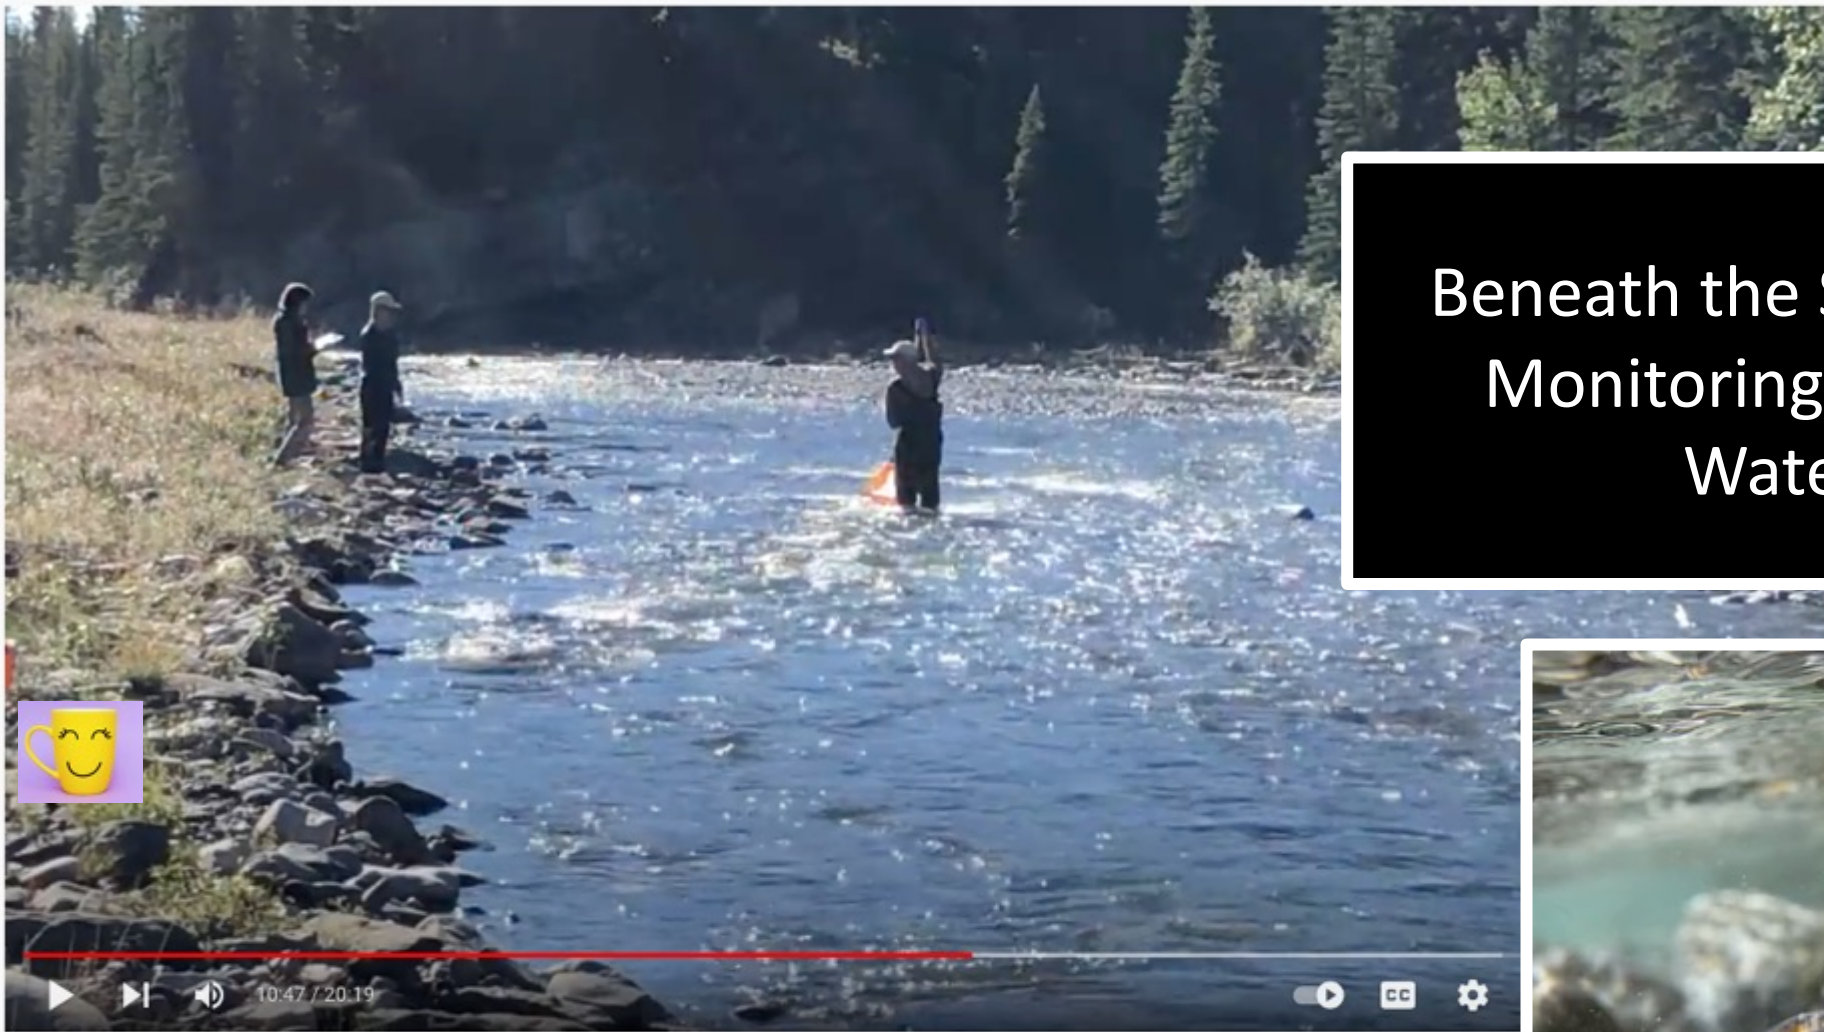

Find out how a summer field school can help you gain hands-on experience in environmental science. All Canadian students eligible. Apply now to pursue a career path in sustainable city planning. science.ucalgary.ca/students/profiles

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

CreekWatch Citizen Science

Beneath the Surface: Water Monitoring in the Ghost Watershed

173 views • Premiered Mar 24, 2021

6

DISLIKE

Ghost Watershed

SUBSCRIBE

Beneath the Surface: Water
Monitoring in the Ghost
Watershed

Recreation Stewardship Fair

Thank you!

Questions?

This work is made possible by our supporters:

TD Friends of the Environment
Foundation

Ghost
Watershed Alliance Society